The Fairfield campus provides a year round picturesque setting.

On and off campus, a variety of interesting people and places can always be found.

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

the Red Sea

The 1986-87 Stags, captained by second-year coach Mitch Buonaguro. Supported by Alumni Hall's RED SEA, the team was led by seniors Jeff Gromos, A.J. Wynder, Ed Golden, and the return of Tim O'Toole to the lineup.

The Stags overcame a regular season record of 12-15 to win their second straight MAAC championship and once again earned a post season birth in the NCAA tournament.

The 1987 Manor staff would like to extend special thanks to James Fitzpatrick for his efforts toward making this yearbook and other student activities possible. Over the past year, Mr. Fitz has made great contributions to both the Manor and the student body in general. We appreciate his efforts and hope his dedication will continue to help student activities and organizations prosper in the future.

DEDICATION

Dr. Joseph G. Grassi

The Manor staff, on behalf of the Class of 1987, would like to take this opportunity to dedicate this year's edition of the Manor to Dr. Joseph G. Grassi. In recognition of his continued support of both our class and the student body in general, Dr. Grassi has been a supportive educator, counselor, and friend to many. He has been a member of the Fairfield philosophy department since 1961. As coach of the men's varsity tennis team since 1969, "Doc's" teams have suffered only one losing season. We would like to thank Dr. Grassi for his success and devotion to Fairfield, and wish him the best to come in the future.

Office Of The President

May 20, 1987

Dear Graduates:

As members of the graduating class of 1987, you have left behind the good years of Fairfield University and entered into the "real world" of life after college. I trust that when you read these few words, you will have made the adjustment to your new world and will have come to the realization that your four years at Fairfield have indeed enriched both your personal and professional lives as well as prepared you well for that world.

Remember that the "real world" which you are experiencing does not consist merely of a pin-striped army of junior executives -- eager to move quickly up the ladder of material success. Countless others -- some of whom you see daily -- the destitute, the lonely, the needy, the homeless, the starving -- also live in that "real world." All of these, less fortunate than yourselves, stand in need of your compassion.

As you begin to actualize the God given potential that you have nurtured during your Fairfield years, I trust that the values fostered by your Jesuit education will emerge and enable you to respond, at least in some small manner, to that much varied human condition that you will encounter.

To all of you, congratulations and God's blessings. Welcome, indeed, to the "real world!"

Sincerely,

Aloysius P. Kelley, S.J.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

The city of New York gave the Statue of Liberty a big 1986 bash — a Fourth of July festival of song, celebrities and fireworks honoring the great lady's first 100 years.

They call it "crack" on the East Coast and "rock" on the West Coast. Whatever its name, this refined, smokable form of cocaine may be the most addictive narcotic ever sold on the streets of America.

DROUGHT

A drought spread throughout the Southeast during 1986. It was the worst dry spell on record. At the peak of the drought, crops wilted from southern Pennsylvania all the way into northern Florida. Even after some rain, many farms in the Carolinas, Georgia, Tennessee and Virginia were on the brink of ruin.

After 20 years of ruling without serious challenge, Phillipine president Ferdinand E. Marcos was forced from office amid charges of corruption and scandal. The new president, Corazon Aquino, was faced with political and economic turmoil.

Among the celebrities who died in 1986 were Kate Smith who died June 17 of respiratory arrest at the age of 79; Benny Goodman, the King of Swing, died June 13, apparently of cardiac arrest; James Cagney, one of Hollywood's famous tough guys, died March 30 at the age of 86; and Ted Knight, best known for his role in the television series "The Mary Tyler Moore Show," died August 26 of cancer at the age of 62.

On November 29, 1986, Hollywood's epitome of elegance, Cary Grant, died of a stroke in Davenport, Iowa at the age of 82. His 33 year career produced 72 films, among which "Gunga Din" (1939), "Arsenic and Old Lace" (1944), and "North By Northwest" (1959) were some of his most famous. Grant's distinctive personality, looks, and talent will long be remembered in the entertainment world.

PEACE??

Gennadiy Zakharov, a Soviet U.N. employee was arrested on a subway platform in New York City and charged with spying. A week later journalist Nicholas S. Daniloff was arrested on the streets of Moscow and accused of spying on the Soviet Union. Both men were released within weeks and the entire affair set the stage for a superpower summit meeting in Iceland.

Iceland Summit

President Ronald Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev met in Reykjavik, Iceland, for a two day summit in October to discuss arms control. The two leaders reached an impasse on testing of the U.S. Star Wars weaponry.

IRANGATE

The Irangate controversy first broke late in 1986 and has continued to shake the White House and the Reagan presidency well into 1987. A trail of covert operations has linked U.S. foreign policy to an arms-for-hostage deal with Iran. Illegal funds and arms were also being channelled to the Contra rebels in Nicaragua, both directly and via outside Middle Eastern nations. John Poindexter and the National Security Council, White House aide Oliver North, Chief of Staff Donald Regan, C.I.A. director William Casey, Vice-President Bush and President Reagan himself have all been linked to the controversy. All is not well in Washington, as shadows of Watergate in the early 70's have made their way back into the minds of the American public.

Miss Tennessee Kellye Cash, the grandniece of country star Johnny Cash, was crowned Miss America 1987. She received the crown from outgoing Miss America Susan Akin.

Caroline Kennedy, who captured America's heart as a little girl romping through the White House, married Edwin Schlossberg, a New York businessman and artist in Hyannis Port, Mass., on July 19, 1986.

Britain's Prince Andrew married red-haired English commoner Sarah Ferguson in July at Westminster Abbey in a spectacle that mustered the pomp and glory of Britain's 920-year old monarchy. Andrew is the queen's second son and fourth in line to the throne.

TERRORISM..

Two Arab terrorists stormed Istanbul's main synagogue on September 6, killing more than 20 workshippers with submachine gun fire. When police arrived, the terrorists detonated hand grenades and killed themselves.

. . . AND U.S. REACTION

U.S. Air Force and Navy jets attacked five targets inside Libya under cover of darkness in April, delivering a response to what President Reagan called the "monstrous brutality" of Libryan-backed terorism. (Among the targets was the Libyan Naval Academy, shown in the enclosed photo, located in a suburb of Tripoli.)

TO THE WINNERS . . .

On the night of October 27, 1986, the New York Mets became World Champions for the second time in their 25 year history. Catcher Gary Carter is lifted in the air by relief pitcher Jesse Orosco following New York's 8-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the seventh and final game.

New York Giants coach Bill Parcells is carried off the field after the Giants defeated the Denver Broncos — 39-20 — in Super Bowl XXI in Pasadena, California, on Jan. 25, 1987.

Orientation Application Process Begins

By Melissa Campanelli
Managing Editor

Plans for Orientation '87 are underway. The annual welcome to the incoming Freshman class began its first stage of planning on January 22, 1986 in Canisius 14, where a meeting was held for anyone interested in becoming a co-chair for the event.

This year, 15 students applied, and, according to Jeanne Osborne, Director of the program, picking the final two will eventually be chosen process.

Aside from all of this, the student chosen must maintain a 3.0 grade point average, and be a member of the class of 1989.

Once chosen, the two co-chairs will have a variety of jobs and responsibilities. They must work closely with the Director in developing and overseeing the entire Orientation program. They also must select the sub-chairs, and once these students are selected, they, with the help of Jeanne, must design an interview process to see where each sub-chair would do best. Some would d

Crackdown on townhouse parties

By Connie McKenna
News Editor

In a letter from Richard Rossi, Director of Student Residences, all townhouse residents were reminded of the policies governing townhouse parties.

University policy states that townhouse parties must be contained inside the units and on the decks. According to Rossi, a number of parties have resulted in groups of people socializing on the lawns outside the units. "The main problem," said Rossi, "is that the parties are beyond manageability. Party hosts have to remember that they're responsible for everyone who attends their party, whether he/she is invited or not."

Excessive noise and drinking in unauthorized places are two problems hoped to be eliminated by stricter enforcement of policies. Rossi added, "underage drinking is a violation of state law, and party hosts are held responsible f

Rossi warned that violation of University and State policies could at any time result in cancellation of the townhouse contract. Although security staff numbers on weekends have not increased, closer attention to the problems are hoped to eliminate them.

No Cardinal Key this year

For the first time in 24 years, there will be no Cardinal Key Socey Directory this year. A recent law, THE FAMILY PRIVACY ACT, prohibits such a publication as an invasion of privacy without the express consent of each student. This week, Dean Schimpf informed the Cardinal Society of the lawyer's ruling ty to request that those who do not want their names in the directory send in their names so that they can be deleted. Instead, the directory would consist only of student's names who responded positively to some form of questionnaire. Since the Cardinal Society does not have the resources to undertake such a task, it was suggested that FUSA set the machinery in motion to find out which students want their names published and then print the names of those who respond.

officers have developed various committees to organize upcoming events. Some of the events include: a dance-a-thon, the annual "Mr. Incredible Legs" contest, the blood drives, several candy sales, and volunteering time for the Connecticut Special Olympics. Money from events will benefit the Boston Pediatric Trauma Center, the March of Dimes, and the Ronald McDonald House of Connecticut.

Besides raising funds and helping other organizations, the officers have set a goal to unify the club members. This includes holding events for the club itself, such as intramural volleyball games and socials. The club welcomes anyone interested in participating in the events.

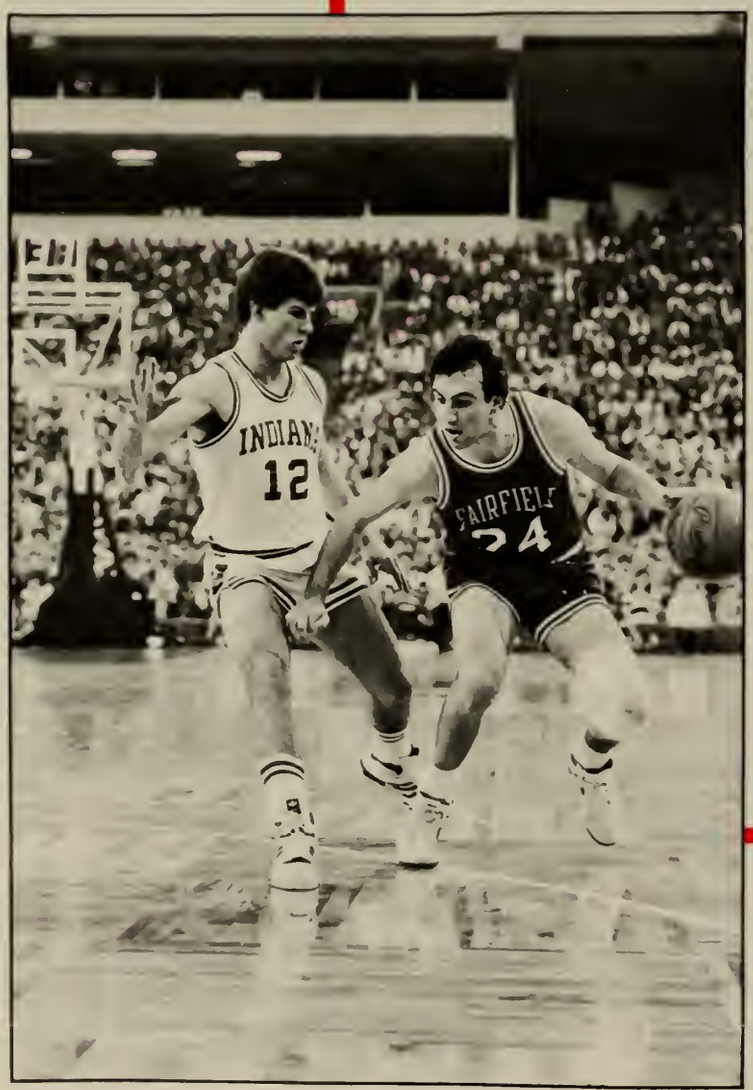
NCAA!! "Indiana Here We Come!!"

For the second year in a row, coach Mitch Buonaguro led Fairfield into the NCAA final 64. On March 12, before a Hoosier Dome crowd of 29,610, the Stags wound up the '86-'87 campaign, falling to the eventual national champion Indiana Hoosiers 92-58. Despite the first round loss, seniors Jeff Gromos and A.J. Wynder put in worthy efforts, finishing the game with 21 and 15 points respectively. Ed Golden drew special praise from Hoosier coach Bobby Knight and All-American Steve Alford, who compared him to the best he'd ever played against. The game marked the end of the most dramatic season in Fairfield basketball history and showed the team to be a national contender for the second year in a row.

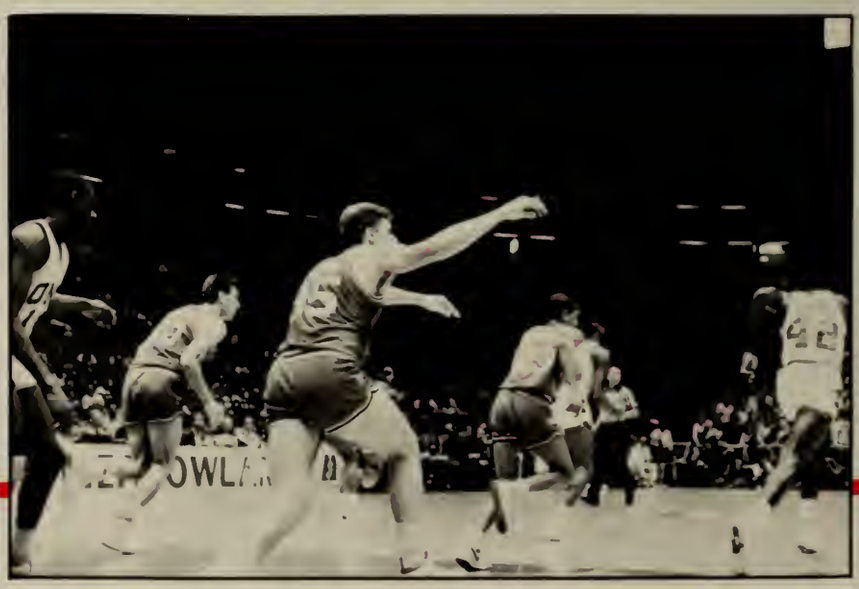


THE 1987 NCAA MIDWEST REGIONALS INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

The volatile and often controversial coach of the Indiana Hoosiers, Bobby Knight, gave Fairfield a little too much to handle. Five rounds later and 2 ½ weeks down the road, Knight had another national championship.

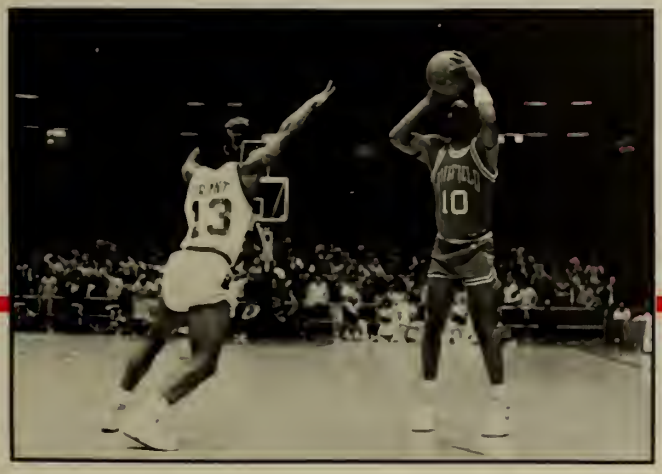
The 1987 MAAC Tournament — Meadowlands Arena

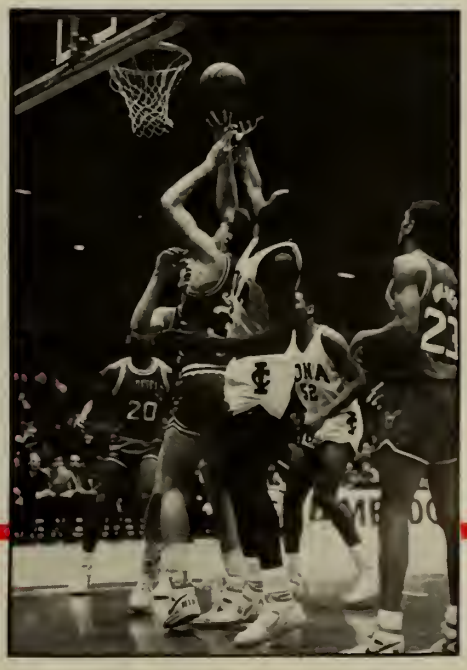
The rafters of Alumni Hall were beginning to feel the weight of a long and disappointing 12-15 season, as the '86-'87 Stags entered the post-season MAAC tourney as the seventh seed. Compared to the success of the previous year's campaign, spirits were down going into the final regular-season game against Holy Cross. A last second shot by Jeff Gromos gave the Stags their twelfth win of the season and seemingly foreshadowed that the year wasn't over yet. Brilliant upsets of LaSalle and Army in the first 2 rounds of the tournament put Fairfield into the finals against rival Iona.



1987 MAAC CHAMPS!

As a heavy underdog to Iona, the Stags dug a hole early and trailed most of the game. With 12:15 to go, Fairfield trailed by 17. A dramatic rally followed, and with 24 seconds to go, Troy Bradford buried a 3-pointer to tie the game at 63. Iona answered with 2 of their own, and Fairfield stood 4 seconds from elimination. Following a time-out, Tim O'Toole fired a mid-court pass to A.J. Wynder, who drove and sank a 2-point shot that will never be forgotten. The overtime period insured Fairfield an automatic bid into the NCAA's by downing Iona 73-70. 5,701 left Brendan Byrne Arena in disbelief, as Buonaguro and his team held the MAAC crown aloft once again.





The emotion and discipline of Fairfield coach Mitch Buonaguro has played a major part of the Fairfield success story over the past 2 seasons. Since coming over from Villanova, where he assisted Rollie Massimino in the Wildcats' 1985 National Championship, Buonaguro has captained the Stags toward unprecedented success. Two consecutive trips to the NCAA tournament and a record of 39-23 over the past 2 seasons has given the team and his coaching ability national recognition. Despite rumors he was heading elsewhere, Buonaguro stood behind his team and thanked Stagmania and the fans of Alumni Hall for a great season. The season also took on another special turn for coach Buonaguro, when his wife Diane gave birth to a son Micheal Anthony on March 14 — congratulations on a great year.

MAAC

The '86-'87 Stag machine driven by Mitch Buonaguro, was led by seniors Jeff Gromos, A.J. Wynder and Ed Golden. Gromos and Wynder finished their Fairfield careers with 1,429 and 1,313 points respectively (fifth and ninth place all time). The return of Tim O'Toole also helped to spark many of the come-from-behind rallies which pumped life into this year's campaign.

The veterans were also joined by a younger squad, led by sophomore Troy Bradford and the rejuvenated Andy Woodtli. Their efforts were supported by freshman standout Ed Duncan, as well as Marvin Walters and Tom Cook.

Women's Basketball

The Lady Stags finished the season with an overall record of 18-10, good enough for third place in the MAAC. Led by coach Dianne Nolan, the team boasted all-MAAC selections Dana Pellegrino and Tasia Turkalo. Entering the MAAC tournament, they were seeded behind LaSalle and Holy Cross, both of whom they had beaten late in the regular season. Unfortunately, an NCAA game limit forced Fairfield to drop out of the tournament, preventing any possible bid to the NCAA's.

The '86-'87 Fairfield Rugby team survived yet another season, scoring spring victories over the likes of Holy Cross and Fairleigh Dickinson. Led by President Hank "is cool" Blaney and captains Bill McCormick and James Galligan, the Red Ruggers insured a successful and often amusing season (contrary to the beliefs of certain Holiday Inn owners). Many felt that the win column should have been boosted due to forfeit victories over Dublin and Pakistan, but nevertheless, seniors Phil Gavey, Terrence Tangney, Pat Wolff, Mike Steed, Kevin McDonough and many others helped the team maintain success on the field. Good luck to Hank, J.B., James and the team next season and remember — pants are required at all times when entering the Rec Plex.

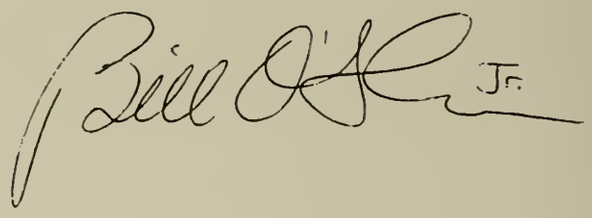
Editor-In-Chief

June 27, 1987

Dear Reader:

Over the course of the past year, the 1987 Manor staff has put great efforts toward making this yearbook possible. Our efforts have hopefully been focused toward the senior class to provide the graduates with a memento to last for years to come. We hope that this edition of the Manor will help to preserve the friendships and memories which Fairfield has given the Class of '87 for the past four years.

I extend my thanks to Noreen and the staff for their time and efforts toward completion of the book. Also, our thanks to Mr. Fitz, Bea Staneko and the Info. Desk for their assistance. Special thanks to Cathy Badour, Paul Bilgore and Varden Studios, May and the mailroom staff, the Mirror, Associated Press, Tony Calianese, and Jogues I & III. Most of all, thanks to the Class of '87 and best of luck in the future.


Sincerely,
